CBC COUNSELING and ADVISING CENTER

What is the Counseling and Advising Center?

The Counseling and Advising Center is dedicated to promoting student success by helping students develop their potential as fully as possible – intellectually, socially, ethically, emotionally, and physically.

The Counselors strive to provide an environment of encouragement and support in which people can develop success-oriented beliefs, feelings, and behaviors that promote a positive experience at CBC and beyond. Counselors also assist students with career planning, advising, and personal counseling.

The Educational Planners assist students with accurate information of college policies, course and program requirements, and identify and connect college services, such as counseling, tutoring, and other support services.

What services does the Counseling and Advising Center provide?

Services include transition to college, career planning, personal concerns, academic advising, referrals, college success classes, and workshops.

Where is the Counseling and Advising Center located? What are the hours?

The Counseling Center is located in the HUB. The hours are: 7:30 a.m. - 6 p.m. Monday, 7:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, and 7:30 a.m. - noon Friday.

How do I make an appointment with a Counselor or an Educational Planner?

To make an appointment, you can call 542-5505 or walk into the Counseling and Advising Center located in the HUB. Students with hearing impairments can call TTY 546-0400 or the relay operator at 1-800-833-6384. If you experience a crisis situation, a CBC Counselor is available to meet with you.

Who are the CBC Counselors and Educational Planners?

All CBC Counselors have master's level credentials in the areas of counseling, social work, and psychology. The counselors are registered and/or certified with the state of Washington. The Educational Planners have bachelor's or master's degrees in the fields of psychology or education.
