- This is my first quarter of college enrollment.  This is my first Stafford Loan.
- This is not my first quarter of college enrollment.  I have already received a Stafford Loan.
8. Funds for Stafford Loans come from private lenders. Since this is a federal program, the terms and conditions are the same, no matter which lender you choose. However, some lenders sell their student loans to servicing companies, which means that your loan may not be serviced by the lender you select. Borrower benefits and customer service will also vary from lender to lender.

The following lenders have demonstrated timeliness of disbursement, borrower benefits, and quality service. Lenders provide different benefits, so you should investigate to learn what each lender can offer you. If the lender you wish to use doesn't appear on below, please contact the financial aid office at 509-542-5504, or email financialaid@columbiabasin.edu.
