Celebrating Excellence Lift &amp; Shift College Assistance Migrant Program (CAMP)	The State Board for Community and Technical Colleges (SBCTC) has been working on a project referred to as the “Lift and Shift Project” (LnS). The purpose of LnS was to replace the aging HP3000 systems in all 34 Washington State community colleges with a modern operating system platform, modern hardware, and consolidate them in the State Data Center located in Olympia. This project was implemented on campus over this past Memorial Day weekend with the help of the following CBC contributors: Jerry Thompson, Eduardo Rodriguez, Brian Dexter, IShelp desk, Teri Cox, Debbi Down, Janet Hovland, Janet O'Neill, Nancy Roe, &amp; Denise Williamson. Miriam Fierro, Lupe Contreras, Anthony Lopez, and Melinda Martinez were recognized for their efforts in making improvements to the CAMP program, and helping their success rates exceed national levels.

they can.

- Fiscal Indicators To Date – In line with where they should be for the year. Capital projects are on track. Approved last year the HSC renovation (3rd floor) & Planetarium design.
- CBC is a Military Friendly School – Committed to addressing and dealing with veterans' needs. Ryan Washburn is the Veteran Corp. rep. on campus.
- CBC High School Academy developed for local high students having difficulty completing high school. Contracting with local school districts. Leonor de Maldonado has been hired as the director. Academy idea was presented to Martin Valadez, VP, Diversity/Outreach by the Juvenile Justice Center who asked CBC to begin a similar model such as Walla Walla Community College's. This could be another alternative for students who don't fit into the regular or alternative high schools. Students would come to CBC for classes. First class to begin winter quarter 2012.
- Special thanks to Martin Valadez, VP, Diversity/Outreach and team for a great job on the development of the Outlook magazine. Great team effort!

Bob Rosselli

- Audit review completed for FY 2010 – No material weaknesses or problems.
- Received six-year $5,000 pledge - $4,000 for an endowment, and $1,000 for immediate annual scholarship. Rich Bollinger, the donor, is creating the endowment in memory of his sister who completed the Paralegal program at CBC.
- Event schedule:
  - December 1st – Campus Open House at Foundation Office
  - December 8th – Donor Appreciation Event at Foundation Office
  - December 18th – Foundation Open House
  - January 26th – Athletic Banquet
