GET INVOLVED

LEARN
Find out where you can hit the books and grow on campus outside the classroom. Whether you are exploring the library, connecting with a tutor in the Academic Success Center, or studying in the tranquil indoor courtyard, everyone has a place on campus to settle in.

ENGAGE
Meet your friends at one of our nine intercollegiate sporting events to cheer on your favorite Hawk team or make friends by joining a student club or participating in student success workshops.

You will have plenty of opportunities to feed your creative side by attending events in the arts center or challenging yourself with friendly student competitions like Trivia Night. You never know - you might have a chance to receive a tuition scholarship!

LEAD
Take on the challenge of leading a club or running for student government. You can make a lasting impact by advocating for you and your peers with campus initiatives. This is your campus; we want you to help shape your community!
Whether you're looking to join a specific career, earn a transfer degree, or gain the basic skills you need to succeed in college courses, CBC will provide a clear roadmap to your success. You choose your degree, and we'll provide services and support to ensure you're taking the right courses – in the right sequence – to meet your goals.

COST TO SOAR

CBC is the smart choice for students looking to access high quality education at an affordable price. Average tuition and fees for a full-time student are approximately $4,700 per year.

Students can apply for federal, state and institutional financial aid, scholarships, grant programs, special programs and resource funding that assist with paying educational expenses.
